

Free Training Opportunity

Domestic Violence 10%Overview

Date: February 26, 2021

Training: Teen Dating Violence (2nd Session)

Time: 1:00pm - 3:30pm

Location: ZOOM

Link to be sent once registered.

Description: Teen Dating Violence

Participants will also learn how to understand the warning signs of an abusive relationship, types of abuse and prevalence of teen dating violence. Facilitators will discuss youth rights to services and prevention strategies, including the roots of violence within our communities and how to educate a younger generation on healthy relationships.

Learning Objectives:

1. Recognize youth developmental considerations and approaches to supporting youth survivors.
2. Understand counseling issues and concerns with youth survivors of violence.
3. Learn legal issues that may present with youth survivors within the justice system.
4. Comprehend teen culture and risk factors pertinent to youth survivors.
5. Learn about the roots of violence within our communities and their connection to our societal understandings.

If you would like to RSVP for this training, please email Jasmine Barnes at jasmine@peaceoverviolence.org by Tuesday February 23, 2021. Once RSVP'd, a Zoom link with confirmation will be sent out to you.

Email Subject Title: Teen Dating Violence